TESTIMONIALS

This time last year, I was getting nowhere trying to get anywhere. My body was fighting my thoughts, telling me it was time to change. It came in aches and pains and regretful words through angry teeth. So, I took my cold flat liner of a heart to Work of Heart. I told it, "Heart. It's okay to feel things. Like love and gratitude." So my heart took my advice and it cried and cried the whole day long, realising that my life is full of self-made miracles disguised as pure luck. This added to the list of exercises that are good for my heart.

Work of Heart opened up entirely new perspectives for me. It helped me find my community out of the strangers who were, quite literally, right beside me. Funny how people are presented to you, right when you need them. Sometimes you just have to freeze time and magnify- superpowers that we all share and that Work of Heart helped me discover.

With love and gratitude,

"I went to Work of Heart not knowing what to expect. I was not disappointed. The combination of a beautiful setting, the genuine speakers and the non-judgemental environment allowed for a shift to occur within me. WoH was the start of an incredible year for me. It was just what I needed, when I needed it. I'm so grateful to Angela for her courage to share her dream with us.

I can't wait for this year's workshop!"

Attending and getting to be a part of Work of Heart is like getting the keys to a secret treehouse, nestled in the forest, warm and cozy, and treating your soul to a magical day of discovery, reflection, and magic. All while sitting in a room FULL of kindred spirits. I was incredibly honoured to be a part of Work of Heart 2017 and can't wait to work with Angela again this year. She is truly creating something even bigger, with even more heart. You owe it to yourself to experience Work of Heart."

I was very grateful to attend last year with friends and family. It was a great event and I will be attending again this year. I believe that to be successful in life we first have to understand our inner self, if not we will fall prey to the voices of others. If you are lucky enough to have been touched by life and survived you need to hear the message. If you have been blessed with success all your life, you really need to hear this message. Eventually we all get to the same place... what is success?
